BIOGRAPHY

BELLS AT TEMPLE SQUARE

In March 2005, a new sound was added to the musical tradition of Temple Square with the creation of the Bells at Temple Square, part of The Tabernacle Choir at Temple Square organization. Like the members of The Tabernacle Choir, Orchestra at Temple Square, and Chorale at Temple Square, all the bell ringers are volunteer musicians. The bell choir holds weekly rehearsals for a variety of performances under conductor LeAnna Willmore and associate conductor Geoff Anderson. These performances include two yearly concerts that showcase the broad spectrum of the handbell repertoire. In addition, the Bells at Temple Square often take part in the weekly Music & the Spoken Word broadcasts of The Tabernacle Choir and play a major role in the Choir's annual Christmas concerts.

LEANNA WILLMORE, Conductor

LeAnna Willmore was named conductor of the Bells at Temple Square in June 2011 after serving as the associate conductor since the formation of the group in 2005. She holds a bachelor of science degree from Weber State University and master of music degree from the University of Utah. A choir teacher in the Utah area for nearly 40 years, she devoted 20 of those years to also instructing handbell choirs and serving in various state and national leadership positions. LeAnna currently serves as the Handbell Musicians of America Area 11 chair. Having won many state awards as a music educator, she is a frequent guest conductor and adjudicator. Her husband, Ken, is a retired structural engineer.

GEOFF ANDERSON, Associate Conductor

Geoff Anderson was appointed associate conductor of the Bells at Temple Square in May 2017. He earned his bachelor's degree from Southern Utah University and master's degree from Boston University. He is currently the director of choirs at Fremont High School with responsibility for vocal ensembles and the handbell choir as well as advanced placement and concurrent enrollment music courses. He is an active member of the Handbell Musicians of America and the National Association for Music Education and currently serves as the Utah Music Educators Association all-state chair. He and his wife, Marita, are the parents of three daughters.

LINDA MARGETTS, Temple Square Organist

Linda Margetts has been an organist on Temple Square since 1981. She received both her bachelor's and master's degrees in organ performance from Brigham Young University and her PhD in music composition from the University of Utah. She is a fellow in the American Guild of Organists (AGO). She also teaches music theory in the 16-week Tabernacle Choir training school. Dr. Margetts has been a member of the music faculty at Utah State University and is currently an adjunct associate professor in the School of Music at the University of Utah. She has lectured at the Church Music Workshop at Brigham Young University for over 30 years. She and her husband, Bert, are the parents of six children.

JOSEPH PEEPLES, Temple Square Organist

Joseph Peeples was called as a Temple Square organist in April 2019. Prior to his appointment, he was the university organist at California Lutheran University. He received his master's degree in organ performance from Brigham Young University. He has completed coursework for a doctorate at Indiana University Jacobs School of Music. Peeples is on the faculty for the annual Brigham Young University Organ Workshop and through the years has taught a wide variety of courses in music theory and musicianship at Pepperdine University, Indiana University Jacobs School of Music, and Brigham Young University.
