ABOUT TODAY'S PROGRAM

Piping Up! Organ Concerts at Temple Square celebrates the second anniversary of this online concert stream with a special concert. The Piping Up! concert series was created in response to COVID-19 restrictions, which paused the century-old tradition of noon organ recitals on Temple Square. The inaugural concert in this series was streamed on June 22, 2020. Since that time, Piping Up! has found an international audience, with millions of views on YouTube and Facebook.

Each concert features a performance by one of the Tabernacle or Temple Square organists, with background comments provided by host Luke Howard, a professor of music history at Brigham Young University and a member of The Tabernacle Choir at Temple Square. The concert series is now streamed online every Wednesday at 12:00 noon (MDT) on TheTabernacleChoir.org, the Choir's YouTube channel, and broadcasts.ChurchofJesusChrist.org. The concerts are produced without an audience and comply with all COVID-19 guidelines. When concerts are concluded, they are available for on-demand viewing.

Tonight's concert, titled "Pieces of Eight," includes performances by all five current organists as well as all three retired organists on the Tabernacle organ and the Conference Center organ. The repertoire includes a variety of selections, including two organ duets and a piece for organ, harp, and English horn. The concert will also feature behind-the-scenes views and interviews with all eight organists.
