Piping Up! Organ Concerts at Temple Square is streamed online every Wednesday at 12:00 noon (MDT). Piping Up! can be viewed on TheTabernacleChoir.org, the Choir’s YouTube channel, and broadcasts.ChurchofJesusChrist.org. When concerts are concluded, they are available for on-demand viewing on YouTube.

These programs continue the tradition of noon organ recitals at Temple Square—a tradition that has lasted for more than a century. The concerts are produced without an audience and comply with all COVID-19 guidelines. Each concert is hosted by Luke Howard.

Watch “Love Thy Neighbor” Concert Event Again

The well-received “Love Thy Neighbor” event by The Tabernacle Choir and Orchestra at Temple Square is available on demand on the Choir’s YouTube channel, broadcasts.ChurchofJesusChrist.org, and several of the Church’s foreign language YouTube channels. Experience again the themes of love, friendship, and goodness as performed by the Choir and Orchestra under the direction of Mack Wilberg and Ryan Murphy with talented guest baritone soloist Shea Owens. You'll especially enjoy the messages delivered throughout the concert by members of the Choir and Orchestra with both local and international heritage. Finally, share the new “I Would Be True” video premiered at the concert.

The Choir Releases New Single Titled “Meditation” on Spotify and Other Streaming Services

The Tabernacle Choir at Temple Square has released its first piece of new music in 2022 on Spotify, Apple Music, and other streaming services. “Meditation” was arranged by Choir music director Mack Wilberg and features Charles Gounod’s adaptation of Johann Sebastian Bach’s original keyboard piece “Ave Maria” mixed with a meditative vocal undertone. During the COVID-19 pandemic pause in Choir performances, Mack Wilberg arranged several new pieces for the Choir to perform once they could gather again. “Meditation” was premiered on the Music & the Spoken Word broadcast in March 2022 and was released on July 8. You can add the song to your playlist on your favorite streaming service, watch a video of the performance, and learn more of the backstory by clicking here.

In Case You Missed These: Links to Great Content

Several wonderful concerts and playlists have been streamed and released over the last few weeks. Here are links to enjoy them again and again:
