

THE TABERNACLE CHOIR

at Temple Square

February 7, 2020

World Famous Choir Returns to Stockholm for Historic Tour

The Tabernacle Choir at Temple Square will perform twice at Konserthuset Stockholm

STOCKHOLM — World-renowned winner of multiple Emmy® and Grammy® Awards, The Tabernacle Choir and Orchestra at Temple Square will perform in Sweden on June 27, for the first time since 1982.

Audiences at the 1800-seat Konserthuset Stockholm will enjoy two performances by The Tabernacle Choir at Temple Square, known for its one-of-a-kind signature sound created by 320 volunteer voices. Sixty-five members of the Orchestra at Temple Square, the Choir's companion all-volunteer symphony orchestra, will accompany the Choir. The Orchestra recently celebrated its 20th anniversary. Distinguished choral composer and arranger, Dr. Mack Wilberg, will conduct along with assistant director Dr. Ryan Murphy. The Choir's repertoire will cover everything from Handel, Gounod, and Rossini to American folk hymns and spirituals. Both concerts will feature the same repertoire, and are just under two hours in length.

Tickets for the performances will be available on Wednesday, February 19 at 11:00 a.m. Central European Time/3:00 a.m. Mountain Time and can be purchased via the Konserthuset webpage (click for Saturday 2 p.m. tickets and click for Saturday 8 p.m. tickets.) Tickets can also be purchased at the Konserthuset ticket office or over the phone at +46 (0) 8 50 66 77 88. Tickets are available for those over the age of 8; a student discount is available.

The Tabernacle Choir's "2020 Heritage Tour" will take the Choir and Orchestra to seven different cities located in four Nordic countries—Sweden, Finland, Denmark, Norway—and the United Kingdom. Information about the full tour including the Stockholm concert can be found at thetabernaclechoir.org/tour.

Choir president Ron Jarrett said the name of the tour is a nod to the history of the Choir, many of whose first members were early converts to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints with musical talents from Europe. "We stand on the shoulders of these musical pioneers who created a legacy that has influenced the entire world for good. What an honour it will be to share the joy and peace the music of the Choir and Orchestra bring in some of the very places where it all began."

United by their faith and shared love of music, the Choir and the Orchestra support the work of the Church. For most of its history the Choir was known as the Mormon Tabernacle Choir; in 2018 its name was changed to The Tabernacle Choir at Temple Square to more fully align with the work of its sponsoring organisation.

###

Media contact, please do not publish:

Daniel Palm

+46 76 893 4190

jdanielpalm@gmail.com

