Los Angeles Concert Added to Mormon Tabernacle Classic Coast Tour

SALT LAKE CITY — The world-renowned Mormon Tabernacle Choir and Orchestra at Temple Square have added another concert to their Classic Coast Tour this summer. They will make a return appearance at The Music Center’s Walt Disney Concert Hall on Wednesday, June 20, 2018. They last appeared there in 2005 at a concert for the American Choral Directors Association.

Tickets for this performance will become available on Friday, April 13 at 10:00 a.m. Pacific Time. Information about where to purchase tickets may be found at motab.org/tourtickets. Seating is limited in this venue, and tickets are likely to sell quickly.

The tour takes its name from the classic musical experience the audiences and performers will share at the specially selected venues for this tour in California, Washington, and Vancouver. Of these concert events, Choir music director Mack Wilberg said, “When we experience great music in great spaces it makes for a great experience—both for the audience and the performer as well.”

Ron Jarrett, president of the Choir, added: “There is nothing quite like hearing the Choir and Orchestra live in concert and experiencing their signature all-encompassing sound. We love going on the road to connect with our audiences and seeing firsthand the pure joy music can bring to the hearts and minds of our fans.”

Music for the Classic Coast Tour concerts will be drawn from the Choir’s vast repertoire, which ranges from choral masterworks to inspirational music from around the world to American folk hymns and spirituals and much more.
